About our Speaker:

Rev. Gaston Warner is an ordained elder from the Texas Annual Conference. He has led congregations in inner-city, multi-ethnic, and suburban settings, from Chicago to Bristol, England. He is the Executive Director of ZOE, facilitating the empowerment of over 20,000 orphans and vulnerable children in multiple African countries. You can learn more at www.zoehelps.org.

Gaston received a BA from Brown University; a MDiv from Duke Divinity School, and a MBA from The University of Durham in England. He lives in Durham, NC with his spouse, the Rev. Dr. Lacey Warner who is executive vice dean for Duke University Divinity School, and their daughter Clare.

The principles Gaston shares will be applicable for both local community assistance programs and worldwide missions.

About our Organization:

- We are Indiana United Methodists who love our church.
- We are focused on Jesus Christ.
- We’re a broadly based movement. Our organization includes United Methodists in large, medium-sized churches, and small churches; urban, suburban and rural churches; clergy and laity; and a variety of ethnic groups.
- We share a common commitment to the orthodox Christian faith as confessed in the Apostles’ and Nicene Creeds. We believe Jesus Christ is the Son of God, the Savior of the world, and the Lord of history and the Church.
- We believe that the Bible is the Word of God and has authority for our lives today.
- With God’s grace, we believe that the best years are ahead for the church that we love!
